

Unit 7

Grammar

1 Complete the text with the same as or different from.

American English is (1) _____ British English in many ways, such as pronunciation. But the most noticeable difference is in vocabulary. Americans go on vacation. This is (2) _____ from the UK, where people go on holiday. Certain spellings are different, too. The way you write color is not the (3) _____ in the UK—people write colour. In the UK, within certain regions, the languages are slightly (4) _____ each other too, much in the same way that people are not the (5) _____ others. But British English and American have a lot more similarities than differences. If you can understand one style, you'll find that it's not too (6) _____ the other.

2 Complete the conversation with like or alike.

Jenna: Guess what? We have new students in our class. They are identical twins!

Mom: Do they look (1) _____?

Jenna: Well, yes, they are identical Mom. They look (2) _____ two drops of water.

Mom: Well, I read somewhere that twins don't necessarily dress (3) _____, so it's not that hard to tell one from the other.

Jenna: Oh, but Sandra and Tina do! It's so hard to tell them apart.

Mom: You and your sister look (4) _____ each other.

Jenna: Not at all! But we both sing (5) _____ you!

Mom: In that sense, we are all (6) _____ because we all sing badly!

3 Rewrite the sentences with (not) as ... as. Use the example to help you.

1 Canada is much bigger than the UK. The UK isn't as big as Canada.

2 Soccer and table tennis are both great fun. _____

3 Drake is cooler than Justin Bieber. _____

4 Wildebeests and lions are equally as fast. _____

5 Kevin Hart is funnier than Dwayne Johnson. _____

6 Star Wars is better than The Avengers. _____
