

Unit 7

Grammar

1 Match the sentences.

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------------|
| 1 I hope you can recover from your illness soon. | a Yesterday I ran into Terry. |
| 2 I met Terry by accident yesterday. | b When I grow up, I'll drive to work. |
| 3 I used the last bit of milk I had this morning. | c Get well soon. |
| 4 When I become an adult, I'll drive a car to work. | d Keep on working hard. |
| 5 Please, continue working hard. | e We ran out of milk this morning. |
| 6 That dog is dangerous. | f Watch out for that dog. It bites! |

2 Rewrite the sentences using a pronoun. Use the example to help.

- | | |
|--|------------------------|
| 1 I picked my brother up at the airport. | I picked him up _____. |
| 2 I took my shoes off. | _____ |
| 3 Give my book back! | _____ |
| 4 I am dropping off my mom today. | _____ |
| 5 Can you call my sister back later? | _____ |
| 6 I will ask Tania out. | _____ |
| 7 I'm trying some new sneakers on. | _____ |

3 Underline the correct preposition.

- Sara: Hey Greg, guess what? I heard Tess and John split (1) out/up?
- Greg: That's not true actually. Ever since he asked her (2) out/up last year they have been together.
- Sara: That shows you can't trust what people say. I should have figured it (3) out/up. People can be such gossips!
- Greg: They could be mad at each other. But they usually make (4) out/up after a while. All couples argue, especially Tess and John!
- Sara: Yes, they do. Anyway, I have to go and pick (5) out/up my sister from ballet class. See you in school tomorrow!
- Greg: Yeah, I have to go do homework—I've been putting it (6) off/on all day, but I really have to do it now or I'll never do it!