Brainstorm

Imagine you are English teacher. You are going to write a letter to the students that are taking your class next year. Think of things the students should or shouldn't do in order to make the most of their English class.

Should	Shouldn't

Organize your ideas

Introduction: Explain the purpose of the letter.

Paragraph 1: Write positive sentences using the first conditional. For example, If you study every day, you will do better in exams.

Paragraph 2: Write negative sentences using the first conditional. For example, If you don't know a word, look it up in the dictionary.

Conclusion: Say how doing things in a positive manner will help them to achieve their goals.
